FIRE AND ICE “ Maggie had left the high-powered business world and a failed marriage for her grandfather's cabin and a new "career" carving bird decoys. She'd found peace in her solitude--then Sam arrived. “ Sam wanted to be alone. He had a past to forget and a future to get on with. But when he found himself roughing it in an unheated cabin in the dead of winter--with an ice-maiden for a neighbor--communing with nature suddenly didn't seem like such a great idea. Maggie's frosty air shouldn't have challenged him, but the hidden passion smoldering in her eyes ignited his own, melting the ice around both their hearts... “ less
